The function of World Dance Day included speech on the importance of the day and performances of different dance forms like Lavni, Goa, Bandia and Punjabi dance etc. Labour Day celebrations were especially dedicated to the working class on whom the whole system depends. Commencing with a speech on importance and history of this day, the function included poems, plays and skits also. To help the students understand the significance of sacrifice made by sons of tenth guru of Sikhs, Shri Guru Gobind Singh Ji, house celebration was conducted on 30th April. The celebration made the environment of morning assembly all the more religious as shabad gayan, vaar gayan and poetry recitation were done in praise of Sahibzada Ajit Singh Ji by the students of all classes. All the celebrations were concluded by the golden words of advice and appreciation delivered by esteemed Principal, Ms. Simmi Gill.
